Dear professor Goudarzi!

Moscow State Linguistic University (MSLU) would like to express the sincerest respect and an exceptional interest in establishing and developing cooperation between our university and educational institutions of Iran. We are happy to inform you that in 2023 MSLU will be holding Russian language and culture summer school 2023. Our summer school is a great opportunity to improve the knowledge of Russian and get to know the Russian culture better. The summer school is held at MSLU every year since 2019, in online or in person formats. This year it is held in person. We would be most grateful if you could share the following information with the Iranian students who are studying Russian and would be interested in participating.

The summer school program lasts for 3 weeks. Our School is provided for any level of the Russian language proficiency.

Before the start of the program students undergo a test to determine their level of language proficiency, according to which they are sorted into groups.
